

YWCA
TORONTO

A TURNING POINT
FOR WOMEN

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 8, 2008

Media Advisory - Family Law Education for Women (FLEW) in Ontario

TORONTO, Dec. 8 /CNW/ - On December 10, International Human Rights Day, Family Law Education for Women (FLEW) will officially launch new public legal education materials for women. FLEW is a public legal education project funded by the government of Ontario with the goal of providing accessible information about family law to women in Ontario. In particular, FLEW aims to reach women who may be vulnerable and isolated. FLEW will unveil its campaign slogan, multilingual legal education materials and website.

<<

When: Wednesday, December 10th 9:00 a.m.
9:20 a.m. Photo Op: Minister Matthews, Minister Bentley and FLEW representatives unveil campaign slogan and materials
10:00 a.m. Talk to our community partners and preview our multilingual materials. Materials will be available in English, French, Arabic, Chinese (simplified and traditional), Farsi, Punjabi, Somali, Spanish, Tamil and Urdu.

Where: YWCA Toronto
80 Woodlawn Ave. East (off Yonge St. south of St. Clair Ave.)

Who: The Honourable Deb Matthews, Minister Responsible for Women's Issues
The Honourable Chris Bentley, Attorney General for Ontario
Representatives from the Family Law Education for Women Consortium

>>

For further information: please call Raine Liliefeldt, Communications Manager, (416) 961-8101 ext.326 or Lisa Cirillo, Manager, FLEW, (416) 961-8101 ext.302

- 30 -