Join this 4-part film series where you will learn about the history of residential schools in Canada. Followed each film screening, you will participate in a sharing circle presided by an Indigenous person.

JUMP Etobicoke is offering services under a hybrid format. In person or individual appointments can be requested. Participants and visitors are required to self-screen for in-person appointments.

Please note: due to funding criteria, we are unable to serve Canadian Citizens and Refugee Claimants at this time.*

By attending this 4 -part film series you will learn about:

- Former and existing laws that reflected racist foundations towards indigenous people.
- The Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement.
- National Day of Truth and Reconciliation, and why truth comes before reconciliation.
- Assimilation, colonization, cultural genocide, and the impact on women.
- Apologies of the churches for the harms brought by residential schools.

Participants will require access to a computer with camera and internet connection.*
